

A dream house for the Happy Family

That's the new house of family Happy. The moving truck has just left and everything should be ready for tonight.

But until then father Happy and his hard friends have a lot to do.

So, stay here little cats, here it is cool in the shade... as soon as everything is furnished you can come in, too.

Oh, my goodness!

Oh,
what a mess!

Er... the men of the moving company are very busy...

They did not want to wait until we told them what belongs were.

And so they just put everything anywhere? Great!

Fortunately father Happy is prepared and has asked a lot of good friends to be moving helpers.

Oh no! In a few hours Helen and the kids are coming. They are so excited about the first night in our new home.

Don't worry, Henry, we will manage the chaos until then!

Ok, so let's whip this chaos into shape...

First father Henry and his friends carry all the big furniture into the different rooms.

The children's rooms are in the attic. Father Henry and his friends seem to feel quite comfortable here.

Hey - What a dragon figure I always wanted one as a kid.

Oh... be careful.

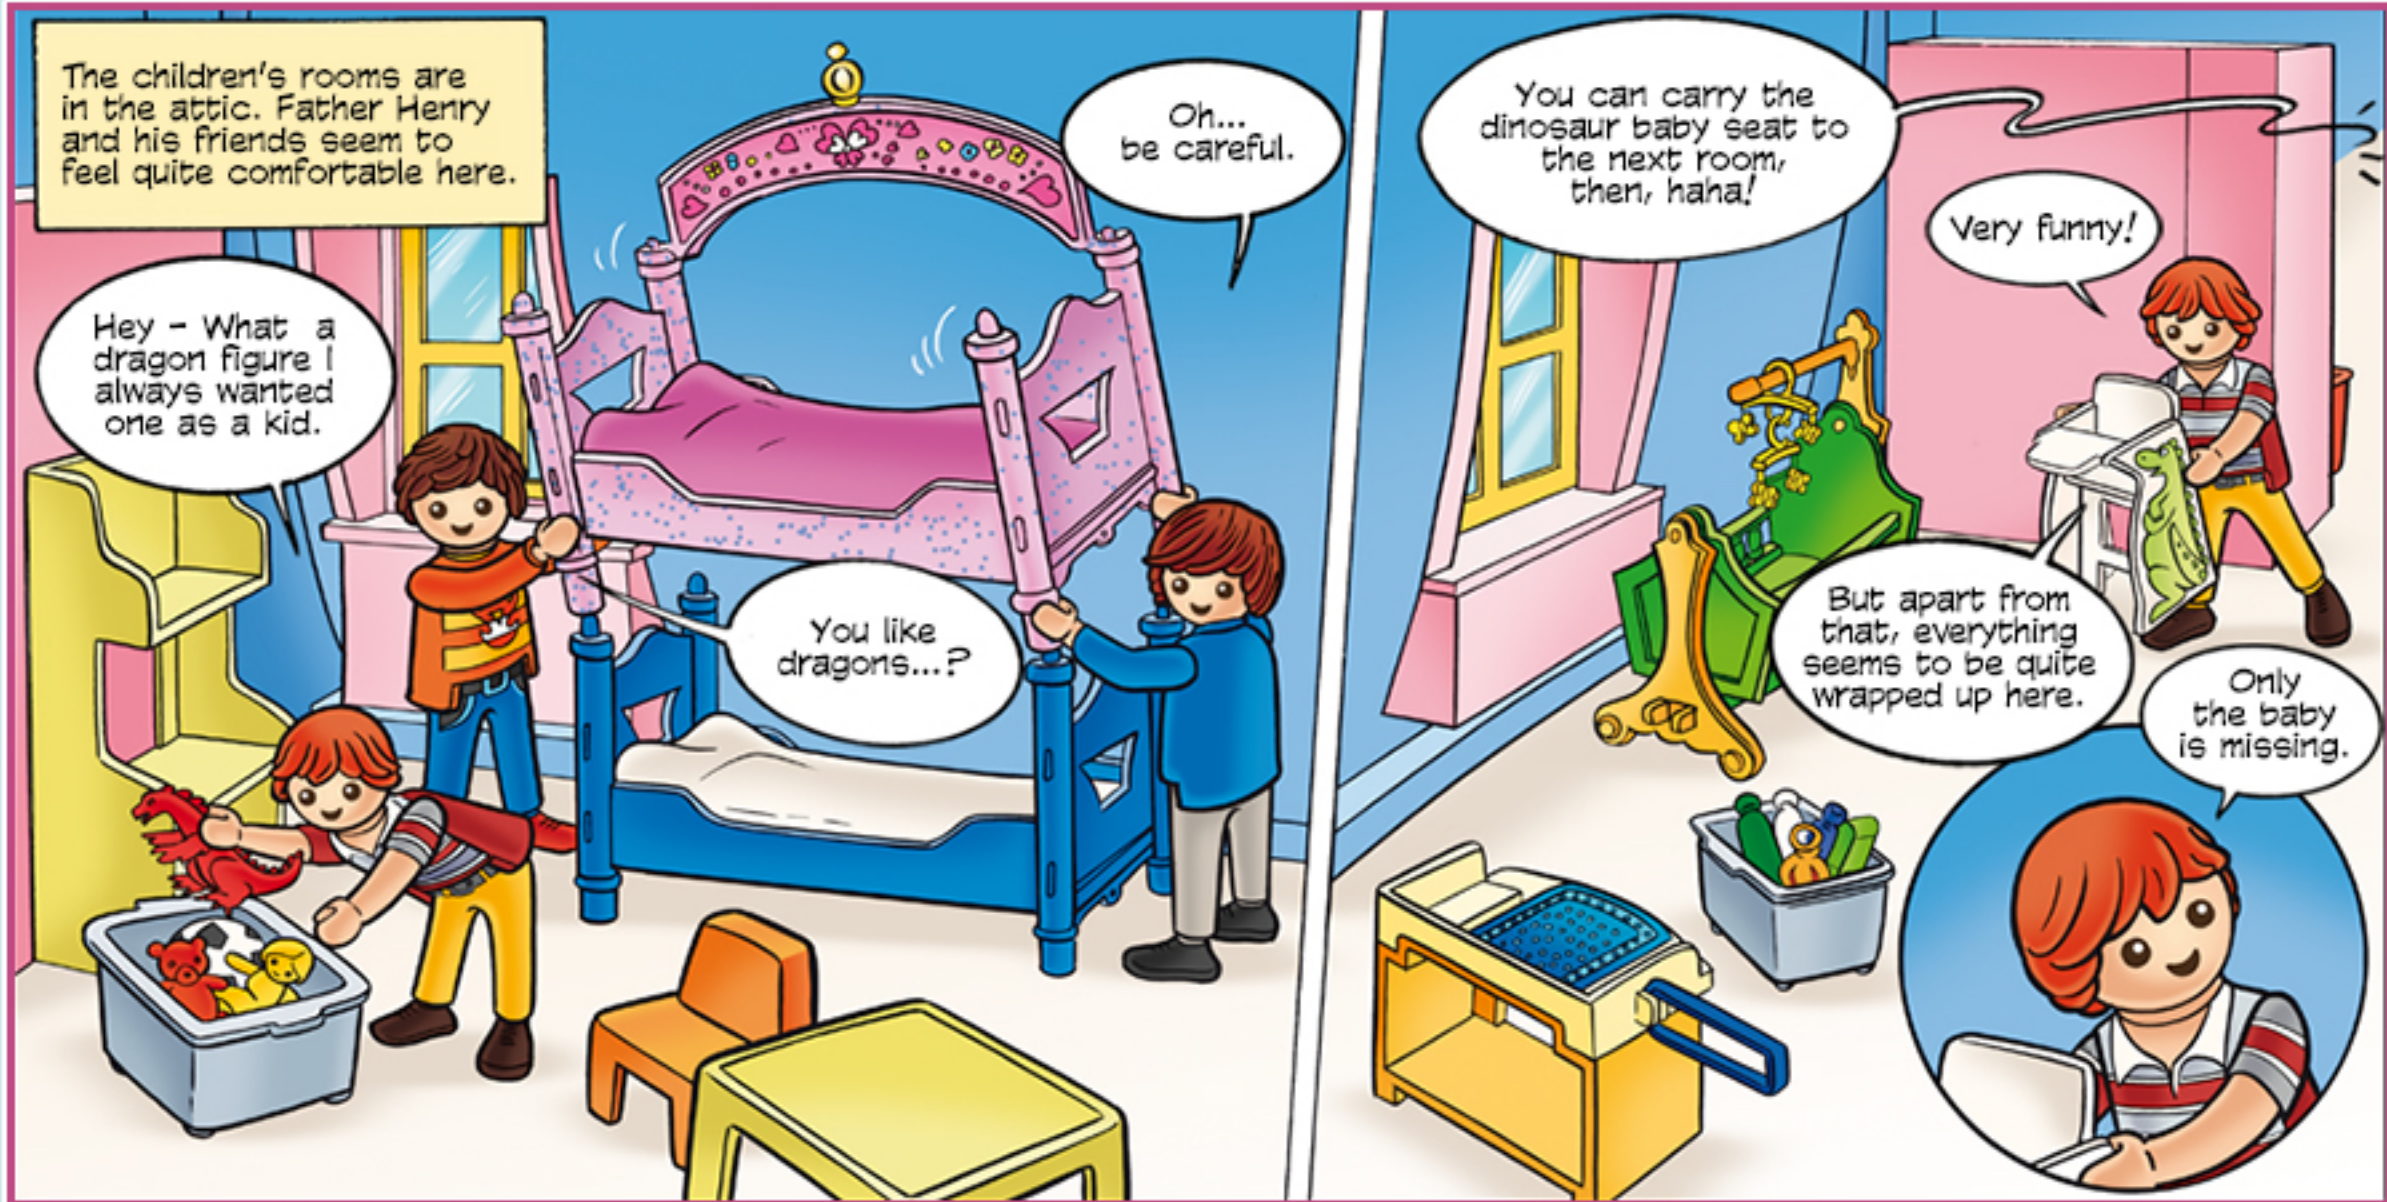

You like dragons...?

You can carry the dinosaur baby seat to the next room, then, haha!

Very funny!

But apart from that, everything seems to be quite wrapped up here.

Only the baby is missing.

In no time at all the children's rooms are furnished.

Well, don't you have any work to do, haha!

Well, we have to test, whether the ball was damaged on the move or not, don't we?

Got it!

Hey, have you guys seen a box with make up and perfume up there?

?!?

Yes, it is here!

I've already been wondering what a newborn should do with all this beauty stuff, haha!

We need it down here in the bedroom!

And since the strong men are already here you can help building up the bed and filling the wardrobe.

You're getting this ready here, right?

Er... well...?

I'm sure you can handle it, haha! In the meantime we will take care of the bathroom.

Suddenly a delicious smell comes from the kitchen and reminds the helpers that hard workers also need good food.

My stove is new, please clear the table.

Shortly in the kitchen...

Hey, where are the cats? I'm hungry!

I will give you super power... but you have to be just quickly clean the table first!

Hmm...
what's smelling
so delicious?

Where are the bet they are ry, too!

My stew will give you new power...
please just quickly clear the table first!

Hey, where are the cats? I bet they are hungry, too!

They are sleeping outside under the living room window in their boxes.

Finally everyone has gathered in the kitchen.

Even the Happy's cats are taking part in the delicious meal...

Enjoy your meal!

Mmmiiiiiauuu!

We will let the little monkeys out of their boxes.

Well, come on kitty...

Ah, there you are you cuties...

You do not have to tell that twice to the hungry cats...

They sound pretty impatient.

Miiiiiaar-rw...!

Quickly come to the bathroom. We will take care of that immediately.

Be patient, kitty!

Now you'll get yummy food... and then you will behave yourselves, you little monkeys!

Quickly everyone is helping now, for there is only little time left until mother Happy and the children will finally come to see their new home.

BRRRRM...
TUUT!
